AN ACT

For the relief of Jesse C. Johnson.

July 27, 1967
[S. 324]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled. That Jesse C. Johnson, of Warner Robins, Georgia, is hereby relieved of all liability for repayment to the United States of the sum of $1,804.43, representing overpayments of salary which he received as an employee of the Department of the Air Force at Robins Air Force Base, Georgia, for the period from July 14, 1957, through May 15, 1965, such overpayment having been made as a result of administrative error when he was erroneously given a within-grade step increase, effective July 14, 1957. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, full credit shall be given for the amount for which liability is relieved by this Act.

Jesse C.
Johnson.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the said Jesse C. Johnson, the sum of any amounts received or withheld from him on account of the overpayments referred to in the first section of this Act. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved July 27, 1967.
